Save valuable time

In today's world a valuable factor is saving time. The CIP Group Webshop helps to simplify office work and save time by giving a choice between an individual order and a recurring order for office supplies that are used regularly.

Delivery to suit your needs

Standard or express delivery? The flexibility of the delivery system allows everything from express day to day deliveries, recurring daily, weekly, monthly or even yearly deliveries. It is up to the client to choose the type of delivery suiting his specific time schedule.

Further multiple delivery addresses with multiple cost centres eases the work for businesses with several locations.

Personalized service online

At CIP Group the personal contact with the clients is valued, why the made-to-measure service is put in centre.
